

FACE PAINTING

PROBLEM STATEMENT

There are 2 members in each participating team. One member has to paint the face of the other on a given theme.

EVENT DESCRIPTION

Face Painting has been used for ages now to express ideas and beliefs by people across geographical regions. Here, the Face Painting competition was held to let the students display their painting skills and creativity. The participants were required to paint the face of their respective partners, based on various themes given to them.

COMPETITION RULES

- <Rule No. 1> There are 2 members in each participating team. One member paints the face of the other. (It is mandatory to be registered for Zealicon'14 to take part in this event.)
- <Rule No. 2> The time allotted to paint the respective faces is 45 minutes.
- <Rule No.3> The teams are provided with a set of Rangeela water colors, 2 paint brushes (1 thin brush and 1 flat brush) and a cup (to hold water) and a paper napkin. The participants cannot use their own material in the competition.
- <Rule No. 4> The paintings have to be confined under 5 themes. The themes are told to the participants at the time of registration.
- <Rule No. 5> The teams are given registration slips at the help desks when they get themselves registered, which they have to submit at the distribution desks at the beginning of their slots to obtain their material for painting.
- <Rule No. 6> At the end of their respective slots, the teams have to present their face painting to the judges. The judges also ask questions related to the painting or ask the painter to explain his/her idea.

GENERAL RULES

- <Rule No. 1> <Sample: Team Size: A team must consist of 2 participants.>
- <Rule No. 2> <Sample: Any team that is not ready at the time specified will be scratched from the competition automatically.>

ELIGIBILITY

All students with a valid identity card of their respective educational institutes are eligible to participate in Face Painting at ZEALICON 2014.
